Experienced Reception and Year 1 Class Teacher Required for April 2018

St Stephen's C/E Primary School and Children's Centre serves a diverse community, providing a creative curriculum and learning opportunities in an attractive environment in which children and adults can work together.

We want to appoint a teacher who has a passion for teaching and learning, a determination to raise the attainment of all children and can work as part of a professional team.

We can offer a creative approach to the curriculum, supportive colleagues, the opportunity to work with our delightful children who enjoy learning, and a team who are dedicated to the achievement of all children. If you are looking to develop your skills further in a school committed to professional development of its entire staff, this could be the post for you. We can also provide a laptop and iPad to support planning and record keeping.

Please download a Southwark Diocesan application form and supporting documents from the schools website www.st-stephens.lambeth.sch.uk. Please email your completed application form to Melissa Johnson at admin@st-stephens.lambeth.sch.uk

St Stephen's School is committed to safeguarding children, and this commitment is reflected in our recruitment processes.

Successful candidates will be asked to apply for an Enhanced Disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service. Further information about the disclosure can be found at www.gov.uk/dbs.

Deadline for application: Sunday 18th February 2018 at 12 noon
Interviews: Week commencing 19th February 2018

Our schools are strongly committed to the principle of equality of opportunity.

THE LONDON NAUTICAL SCHOOL
ENGLISH DEPARTMENT 2IC

Salary: Inner London Pay Scale plus TLR 2a
From September 2018

The London Nautical School requires an English Department 2ic to join our dynamic team here on London's South Bank. This role would suit an experienced teacher who now seeks to take responsibility for shaping key areas in the Department.

Our school has a unique history, operates in a brilliant listed building on the South Bank of the Thames and contains a team who are both proud of our track record and ambitious to develop further. Our department strives to embrace the richness of a proud English literary heritage, the affordances of our being located in the heart of London's cultural mecca and the thrill of working with a broad and multi-ethnic intake of young Londoners.

In our teachers we prize innovation, rigour and passion in equal measure. Teachers of English at The London Nautical School experience a high degree of autonomy and thrive in a culture of professional respect and collegiality. We seek applicants who can demonstrate that they embrace their professional role in all its dimensions.

The London Nautical School, with its 650 students, is a close-knit, warm environment. We seek colleagues who value this and wish to contribute to the wider life of the school.

You are welcome to visit the school ahead of submitting an application to experience our great department for yourself. Please contact us via email should you wish to find out more or to arrange a visit.
